Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man or woman; and,

Whereas, Marilyn Van Liere began her career with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service on April 9, 1978; and,

Whereas, Marilyn has been a dedicated and outstanding employee who has seen many changes over the 25 years of service she has given to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, the Consolidated Farm Service Agency, and Farm Service Agency; and,

Whereas, Marilyn always strove to provide the very best service to the farmers of Deuel County and because of her commitment to do her job very well, she will be greatly missed by her co-workers as well as the Farm Service Agency customers; and,

Whereas, On December 31, 2003, Marilyn will retire from the Farm Service Agency and begin to enjoy some of the simpler things in life, which include her family, friends and SDSU basketball; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 31, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and co-workers in commending her for a job well done.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
